

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Republican women of every age, race, ethnicity and economic background have made historic contributions to the growth and strength of our nation and in their community; and,

Whereas, The South Dakota Federation of Republican Women has fourteen active clubs across the state with a total of over 610 members who recruit women for elected and appointed public and party offices, educate members and the public about legislative issues, train campaign leaders and volunteers to work for Republican candidates, promote the principles of the Republican party, and elect Republicans at all levels of government; and,

Whereas, The members of the South Dakota Federation of Republican Women were very instrumental this past year by donating many volunteer hours to assist Republican candidates by serving as precinct workers, distributing campaign literature, and holding fund-raising events; and,

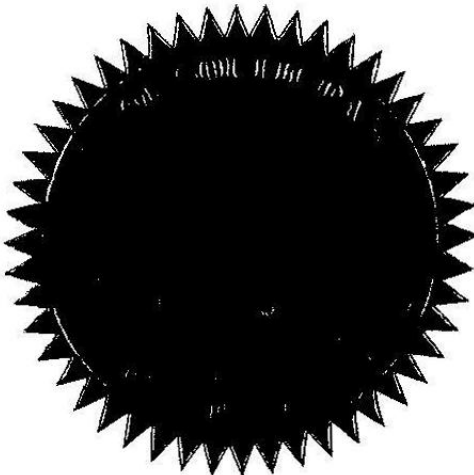

Whereas, On February 21, 2003, a special tribute will take place to honor the Republican Women across the state of South Dakota for all their accomplishments in helping to elect Republicans in November:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim February 21, 2003, as

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Tenth Day of February in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Three.

M. Michael Rounds
